ABOUT ME

Haredi, born and raised in Bnei Brak, currently based in Lod.

In a life changing decision, I pivoted my life to pursue a career as a Full Stack Web Developer, starting at the entry level.

Since January of 2021 I have been fully immersed in Full Stack studies and projects, and now I am prepared to take my learnings and put those to practice, utilizing my innate problem-solving skills.

The company that will hire me as an entry level developer will find a hard-working, meticulous professional, and a great team player.
